Courtney Richards will speak on the panel “Navigating the Legal Community as a Veteran/Servicemember” for the Boston Bar Association.

This panel will focus on navigating the unique challenges and opportunities available to those who have served and are now pursuing or advancing their careers in law. This panel of distinguished veteran attorneys will share their journeys, insights, and strategies for success in the legal field. Courtney will speak alongside Nicholas M. Hasenfus of Holland & Knight LLP, Tara Dunn Jackson of United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, and David Soutter of the New England Connectivity and Telecommunications Association.
