

Ken Fisher Recognized Among City & State New York's Real Estate Power 100

Monday, March 22, 2021

New York – March 22, 2021 — Kenneth K. Fisher, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Business Law Department, was named to City & State New York's Real Estate Power 100. The list recognizes key executives, elected officials, appointees, advocates, and others at the intersection of real estate development and public policy. Fisher was identified as an industry leader assisting in shaping New York's vibrant real estate world in so many ways.

Fisher's practice concentrates on the public realm of the metropolitan area. His experience includes real estate development, regulatory law, litigation, and investigations. He is a former New York City councilman and served as founding chair of the New York City Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters and was founding chair of the Governors Island Alliance. Fisher is chair of the Brooklyn Bar Association Committee on Government & the Public Sector. He previously served as chair of the New York City Bar Association Land Use Planning & Zoning Committee and Insurance Law Committee and was a member of the Judiciary Committee.

City & State is a media organization dedicated to covering New York's local and state politics and policy. Their in-depth, non-partisan coverage serves New York's leaders every day as a trusted guide to the issues impacting New York.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor serves its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Real Estate