

Deciding Who Gets to Live in the Family Home During a Divorce

Saturday, August 29, 2020

Charles Law was featured in a New York Times article that discusses who is entitled to a family home after a divorce. “If they bought it together and maintained it together, it’s marital property and most likely it would be divided 50-50,” said Charles. “Most likely, they would be both entitled to live there until the place is sold.”

To read the full article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Family Law