

Jordan Chisolm named a South Florida Business & Wealth Up & Comer

Friday, October 14, 2022

MIAMI, Fla. – October 14, 2022 – Cozen O'Connor is pleased to announce that Jordan Chisolm, an associate in the firm's Miami office, has been selected as an honoree for the South Florida Business and Wealth magazine Up & Comer Awards. This award honors young professionals in the south Florida tri-county area who have achieved excellence in their careers, shown commitment to their community, and demonstrated leadership. Honorees will be celebrated in a ceremony on October 19, 2022.

Jordan's business and corporate practice spans mergers and acquisitions, emerging businesses and venture capital, entity formation, financings, joint ventures, and general corporate matters. He also serves as co-chair of the firmwide Associates Committee after completing a term as co-vice chair. Jordan's work in the community includes his work as an Equal Justice Works fellow at Legal Services of Greater Miami, Inc., where he founded the Neighborhood Entrepreneurs Project, Legal Services' s pro bono small business practice. Through the project, he provided pro bono transactional legal services to more than 100 low-income entrepreneurs as outside general counsel and was a frequent speaker on panels and workshops covering core legal issues for emerging business owners.
