

Matthew Weinstein Elected Fellow of American College of Real Estate Lawyers

Tuesday, April 9, 2024

PHILADELPHIA, April 9, 2024 – Matthew I. Weinstein, chair of Cozen O'Connor's Real Estate Lease Restructuring Group, has been elected a fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL).

Weinstein represents many local, regional, and national tenants and landlords in the negotiation of retail, office, life science, and warehouse/industrial leasing space in shopping centers, office complexes, life science buildings, industrial sites, technology parks, and incubation centers. He additionally represents owners of retail, office, life science, and warehouse/industrial projects in connection with the acquisition, development, financing, leasing, and disposition of such assets.

Weinstein writes and contributes to numerous articles for real estate-related topics in leading industry publications. He is a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers and the Urban Land Institute. He has been featured as a guest speaker at multiple industry organizations.

ACREL is one of the premier associations of nationally known real estate attorneys in the United States. ACREL's highly selective membership includes distinguished real estate practitioners from across the country chosen for their achievements in their practices and contributions to the profession and their communities.
