WILMINGTON, November 7, 2023 – Mark Felger, co-chair of Cozen O'Connor's Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Restructuring Practice, has been named a fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. This distinction recognizes outstanding bankruptcy professionals for their achievements in the field, contributions to upholding justice, and dedication to public service.

The selection process for fellows begins with the consideration of proposed candidates by a Circuit Admissions Council for each federal judicial circuit. Each Circuit Admissions Council then recommends the nomination of fellows to the Board of Regents. Felger's nomination was approved by the Board of Regents on October 11, 2023.

Felger has a broad commercial practice, focusing on the areas of Chapter 11 reorganization and general insolvency law. He has represented all constituencies in corporate restructurings and insolvencies both in and out of Chapter 11. Mark's practice also includes counseling debtors through non-judicial restructurings and Chapter 11 proceedings, advising unsecured creditors' committees in Chapter 11 proceedings and representing trustees in complex Chapter 7 cases.
