

Josephine Bahn Re-elected as Under 36 Representative to the American Bar Association House of Delegates

Friday, July 21, 2023

WASHINGTON D.C., July 21, 2023 — Josephine Bahn, an associate in the firm's Construction Law Group, has been re-elected by the D.C. Bar as their Under 36 representative to the American Bar Association House of Delegates. She will serve a two-year term from 2024-2026. The House of Delegates is the association's governing policy-making body. It is responsible for establishing the policies for the administration of the association and its positions on professional and public issues. The House of Delegates was established in 1936 and meets twice yearly at ABA Annual and Midyear Meetings.

Josephine (Jo) focuses her practice on commercial litigation and construction law. She counsels real estate developers, project owners, contractors, and design professionals in all phases of the construction process. Jo's practice includes public and private projects as well as bid protests throughout the United States. She also regularly handles claims related to mechanics' liens on projects. Jo has wide-ranging experience litigating construction defect claims, including stucco and other water intrusion claims. She has litigated in a wide range of forums, including state, federal, and administrative forums as well as various boards of contract appeals.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation
- Construction Law